

FAIRFAX PLANNING COMMISSION

Tuesday, July 7 2015

Members Present: Martha Varney, Mark Hunziker, Mark Kane, Greg Heyer

Public Present: Skip Taylor, ZA, Amber Soter, ZA Assistant, Amanda Holland, North West Regional Planning

7:01 PM- G. Heyer called the meeting to order.

7:02 PM – Review of minutes from June 2, 2015.

7:03 - M. Varney moved to approve the minutes from June 2, 2015; M. Hunziker 2nd. All in favor.

7:05- A. Holland presented a map created for the Planning Commission titled “Fairfax Proposed Walking & Biking Facilities” This is a map of all the current, proposed and suggested sidewalks, cross walks and recreation paths in Fairfax. A. Holland’s intention was for the Planning Commission to provide input on the map as proposed and she and her team will make any changes. Some suggested changes included adding the 100 acre woods, paths behind the school, paths behind the ball fields on Main Street and creating a more magnified Village Insert. A. Holland will revise the map and present a new copy to the Planning Commission. The goal with this map is to show the community all the phases of the Sidewalk Master Plan as well as outline the suggested items from the most recent MPG into one comprehensive map.

In addition, A. Holland discussed with the Commission about upcoming MPG’s that are available, as well as traffic calming measures including radar feedback signs. There also was discussion on the Safe Routes to School Organization and further research will be done to see how we can re-implement that program.

8:11 – General Planning Commission Business; including Thank you notes to all who helped with the recent MPG.

8:15 – Mail was presented. A letter to Leon Beliveau in response to his petition to change a definition in the Fairfax Development Regulations was drafted and will be mailed. A copy is available in the Zoning Office.

8:37 – Discussion of Scenic Resources and how it relates to the Town Plan.

The Planning Commission will not host their meeting on July 21, 2015 and the next scheduled meeting will be on August 4, 2015.

9:15- PM- M. Hunziker moved to adjourn; M. Varney 2nd. All in favor.

Respectfully submitted,
Amber Soter, Planning and Zoning Assistant
